An applicant is only eligible for assistance if he or she has had a catastrophic loss of their property or suffers financial hardship as specified in the Christ Jamaica Selection Criteria documentation. The applicant may be requested by our field officer to provide evidence of destruction or financial hardship (e.g. picture, financial statements) in order to properly assess the application. Any disbursement from the fund shall only be made to current churches of Christ congregation, ministers and members suffering a catastrophic loss with resulting financial hardship following such a disaster and shall not be granted to cover costs to enhance building, renovation or construction. Disaster Type Disbursements shall only be granted for immediate housing, food, medical supplies and services, clothing and other similar disaster relief. The Christ Jamaica – Relief Support Administrators will make every effort to advertise and raise donations towards relief efforts undertaken through our website, letters to congregations and direct communication with the brotherhood. Funds are also NOT for items or services that are not reimbursable through insurance. The assistance provided from the Fund is not intended to indemnify individuals or congregation against all loss or losses. The Fund may assist a minister for a period of time by paying for reasonable expenses they have incurred or anticipate to incur as a result of his local congregation financial instability, including, but not limited to: Travel expenses and or Part-time salary.
